THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. Fifty copies of a weekly entitled New Times, published in Spanish by the news-paper Trud in Moscow, have recently arrived in Ecuador, addressed to A. D. Dolanos, 737 Junin Street, Quito. Dolanos is the local agent for literature printed in the USSR. French and English editions of the weekly had been received previously but had received only limited distribution. The publishers of New Times direct that copies should be distributed free of charge but say that later payment must be made.
2. French editions of a bi-monthly magazine entitled Femme Sovietique, printed in the USSR, are being sold for six sucres a copy. It is expected that Spanish editions of this magazine will soon be received, and the Partido Comunista del Ecuador (PCE) plans to circulate them widely, not only among women members of the PCE, but among Ecuadorian women in general.
3. The PCE has desired to introduce Russian propaganda films in Ecuador for some time. Dolanos stated that PCE leaders are already in direct communication with Moscow in regard to obtaining both films and projectors and that Pedro Saad will discuss the matter personally in Moscow.
4. Maria Gomez de la Torre, Financial Secretary of the PCE, received a letter dated 11 December 1950 which stated that as a result of a conversation in Warsaw with Ricardo Paredes, Secretary General of the PCU, the appropriate authorities would be consulted on the subject of supplying paper supplies to the PCE and that the results of the consultations would be communicated in the near future. The letter was written on the letterhead of "Izhduna Rodnaja Kniga," Moscow, Kuznetskiy Most, 18.
